

Dr. Kirstie Broadfield (PhD)

◆ 0403 218 201 ◆ Kirstie.broadfield@my.jcu.edu.au ◆ www.outsidetheboxresearch.net

OBJECTIVE

To provide high-level services by utilising the knowledge and experience I gained during my PhD in Indigenous Studies, Sociology, and Criminology, as well as my extensive project-based background.

SKILLS SUMMARY

- Research / analytical skills
- Qualitative research skills
- Report writing
- Excellent communication skills
- Time management
- Organisational skills
- Advanced computer literacy
- Problem-solving
- Decision making
- Presentation creation
- Multi-tasking
- Autonomy and teamwork

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Arts in Indigenous Australian Studies (Academic Medal Recipient, 2016).
- Honours in Anthropology (1st Class, University Medal Recipient, 2017).
- Doctor of Philosophy (Indigenous Studies, Sociology, and Criminology; 2022).

CONFERENCES

- Presented at UNSW HDR Conference, 16-17 September 2018, Relevance, Responsiveness and Impact;
- Presented at UNSW Conference, 27-28 September 2018, Critical Criminology and Social Justice;
- Presented at Australian Anthropological Society Conference, 4-7 December 2018, Life in an Age of Death.
- Presented at Australian and New Zealand Society of Criminology Conference, 8-10 December 2021
- Guest presenter at the James Cook University National Social Sciences Week, September 2022.

PUBLICATIONS

- Broadfield, K. (2022). Black lives matter: The violence of Indigenous incarceration in Australia [James Cook University]. Doi: <https://doi.org/10.25903/9fkk-j690>
- Geia, L., Broadfield, K., Grainger, D., Day, A., & Watkin-Lui, F. (2018). Adolescent and young adult substance use in Australian Indigenous communities: A systematic review of demand control program outcomes. Australian and New Zealand Journal of Public Health, 42(3), 254-261. doi:10.1111/1753-6405.12789.
- Broadfield, K. (2021). A tale of two deaths: Necropolitics in the criminal justice system. Demos Journal, 11. <http://demosjournal.com/article/a-tale-of-two-deaths-necropolitics-in-the-criminal-justice-system/>
- Broadfield, K., Dawes, G., & Chong, M.D. (2021). Necropolitics and the violence of Indigenous Incarceration. Decolonization of Criminology and Justice, 3(1), 5-26. Doi: 10.24135/dcj.v3i1.26
- Dawes, G., & Broadfield, K. (2021). Risking a new underclass: Young Australians, broken transitions, and the pandemic. In V. Bozkurt, G. Dawes, H. Gulerce, & P. Westenbroek (Eds), The societal impacts of COVID-19: A transnational perspective (pp. 17-28). Istanbul, Turkey: Istanbul University Press. Doi: 10.26650/B/SS49.2021.006.02.

Kirstie Broadfield

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Aug 16 – 22

ITAS Tutor

James Cook
University

- Providing one-on-one or group tutoring to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students enrolled at the Cairns campus of James Cook University.
- Other duties include providing assistance with organisation and time management.

Dec 21 – Dec 22

Research Officer /
Senior Researcher
Officer

James Cook
University

Indigenous Youth Justice Throughcare Project

- Preparing grant proposal for funding application.
- Preparation of university ethics application, as well as the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ethics supplementary form.
- Preparing a rejoinder for the ethics committee.

Barriers and Enablers for Female Rural Generalists Project

- Assisting with interviews of female rural generalists.
- Conducting thematical analysis of the interview transcripts using Nvivo.
- Writing up methodology.

Feb 18 – Apr 22

PhD Researcher

James Cook
University

- Conducted a literature review of the current perspectives on Indigenous incarceration.
- Undertook semi-structured interviews of Indigenous Australian formerly incarcerated persons at a drug and alcohol rehabilitation centre.
- Analysed official statistics from the Australian Bureau of Statistics, Queensland Police Service, Queensland Correctional Services and the Queensland Sentencing Information Database.
- Conducted a thematical analysis of the semi-structured interview transcripts.
- Conducted a theoretical analysis of the qualitative and quantitative data.

Feb 21 – Dec 22

Research Assistant

James Cook
University

- Working on a project to evaluate the Spayc & Place program in terms of its impact on social connectedness and juvenile crime in three low socio-economic suburbs of Cairns.
- Duties include researching and compiling a literature review on sports based intervention programs and their impact on crime reduction and social connectedness, as well as the benefits of participating in sports and outdoor recreation activities.
- Analysing and writing up data from social connectedness survey.
- Assisting with interviews of management and program providers.
- Analysing interview transcripts.
- Ethnographic fieldwork.

May 17 – Jan 18

Research Assistant

James Cook
University

- During this time I worked on four research projects of varying lengths.
- I performed a systematic review of the published literature evaluating the impact of substance use programs on Australian Indigenous youth, which was subsequently published.
- I undertook a literature review that explored existing discourses on the merits of residential care as a route to education for children living in poverty in developing countries, primarily Cambodia.

Kirstie Broadfield

- I was part of an extensive team that created a report for the Queensland Corrective Services for which I undertook a literature review of the current mainstream options in the assessment, treatment, and management of sexual offenders, as well as a commentary on the cultural issues in the context of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sex offenders.
- I undertook a literature review of evaluations of cell visitor services, diversionary centres, and family wellbeing programs for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders.

Nov 11 – Jul 13

Project Controller duties:-

Project Support
Officer / Document
Controller
(Contract)

Sinclair Knight Merz

- Ensure compliance with program reporting and delivery procedures by designing, building and maintaining a MS Access database to track deliverables, quality and safety documentation and project progress.
- Conduct regular meetings with Package Managers, Design Manager, Graduate Engineers to gather information on deliverables and progress.
- Facilitate region-wide data collection and store in accordance with program document control procedures.
- Provide assistance to the Design Managers, including assistance with the preparation of project delivery reports.
- Preparation and management of Central Design Office financial tracking systems.
- Promote compliance with document control procedures, quality systems and project requirements.
- Implementation of SKM quality assurance procedures.

Document Controller duties:-

- Establish style guidelines and file structures to ensure a standard folder structure is maintained for the Central Design Office.
- Create transmittal protocols, manage controlled distribution of program documentation and maintain a history of all relevant documentation. Printing, filing, PDF production, distribution and control of design drawings and engineering documents; preparation of transmittals and recording of all distribution information such as revision numbers, issue dates and destinations within the Document Control system.
- Coordinate and control vital program documents, including the coordination of internal reviews and distribution of documentation internally and externally. Ensure working files are kept up to date with most recent drawing revisions.

REFEREES

Work Referee

Ms Melissa Mallie
James Cook University
melissa.mallie@jcu.edu.au

Work Referee

Prof. Andrew Day
University of Melbourne
day.a@unimelb.edu.au

Work / Academic Referee

Prof. Alan Clough
James Cook University
Alan.clough@jcu.edu.au

Reference details correct at time of writing.